

WHAT HAPPENED OUTSIDE CHICAGO

Lancaster, Wis.—Harry French, Burlington railroad conductor released on parole for 2 years by Judge Clementson following conviction for manslaughter. Alleged to have caused death of Patrick Murphy by kicking him in head as he clung to side of box car.

Eau Claire, Wis.—Hal J. Lant, 31, known as "meanest man in Eau Claire," given one year at Waupun for breaking wife's nose.

LaCrosse, Wis.—After more than half a century of waiting, Wisconsin Winnebago Indians are to receive half a million dollars with interest as payment for lands sold to government years ago.

Cleveland, O.—Frank Sticka, 21, arrested, hiding under bed to which was tied horribly mutilated body of Mrs. Anna Podogil, 40, housekeeper for Sticka's father.

Washington.—Rumored that engagement exists between Sec'y of Treasury William C. McAdoo, 50, a widower, and Miss Eleanor Wilson, 25, youngest daughter of president.

London.—4 new dreadnoughts, 4 cruisers, 12 torpedo boat destroyers and several submarines provided in record-breaking naval estimate submitted in house of commons by admiralty.

Syracuse, N. Y.—Mrs. Rhosa Rhodes, bride of few months, suing for separation from husband, asked custody of "unborn" child and maintenance.

Racine, Wis.—30 coal shovelers employed by Wisconsin Gas and Elec. Co. quit work complaining conditions unbearable since instalment of system doubling work without giving them breathing spells. Jobs immediately filled by other men.

Bedford, Ind.—2 men held for murder, 2 for assault with intent to kill and 9 for rioting at inquiry over riot at plant of Lehigh Portland Cement Co. following lockout which resulted in 1 death and 2 serious injuries.

Portland, Ore.—More than $1,200,000 damage done by fire which swept Portland water front.

New London, Wis.—Richard Klotzbeker, wealthy farmer, swallowed carbolic acid for whisky. Dead.

Lansing, Mich.—Convicts working in state penal institution not eligible for compensation when injured. Decision of state industrial accident board.

Terre Haute, Ind.—"Bat" Master-son arrested charged with conspiracy to murder by dynamite.

Woodland, Cal.—Local national guard armory robbed. Arms and ammunition stolen.

New York.—Geo. Westinghouse, head of Westinghouse Air Brake firm, dead.

Paris.—French dressmakers assert it is American women, not Paris women, who demand present indecent dress and freak fashions.

New York.—Fourteenth street Siegel store and Simpson-Crawford store will close their doors Saturday night.

Webb City, Mo.—Charles Tow, 30, killed; Lewis Harris, 25, seriously injured when holster at Burl Roberson mine broke.

Boston, Mass.—Barking of stray mongrel attracted attention to fire in sausage factory.

London.—Persistent rumors that Premier Asquith will resign as result of Irish home rule turmoil.

New York.—Caught in cross fire of his own friends' bullets, James Foley, gangman, shot to death in battle in saloon.

Detroit.—James S. Winters, Michigan Central switchman, fell between two cars. Killed.

Indianapolis.—$35,000 damage to Lyman Bros. Picture frame plant by fire.

Bridport, Conn.—3 men dead, fourth probably fatally burned in fire which destroyed six-story tenement house in Italian district.